Forest Back Drop

Don't be fooled by this forest's peaceful appearance — there are dangerous monsters, like Punis, lurking in the shadows. Well, perhaps it's not that dangerous after all... Be sure to hunt the Punis down if you see one!

Restaurant

This popular restaurant, located in Arland, is where Iksel works as a chef. Many of his most creative and daring dishes were created here, but whether or not the customers embraced them is still unknown.

Workshop Back Drop

Rorona and Astrid create their alchemic items using the enormous pot. The pot is full of what appears to be boiling water, but the liquid's true identity is a mystery. It is a smart idea to stay away from the pot, considering all of the strange ingredients Rorona puts into it while practicing alchemy.

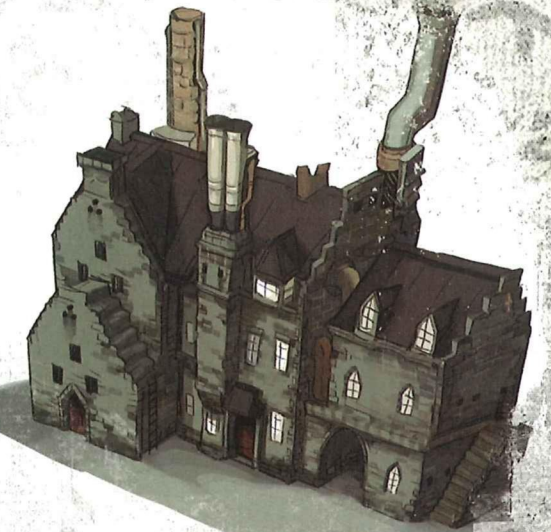

Weapon Shop

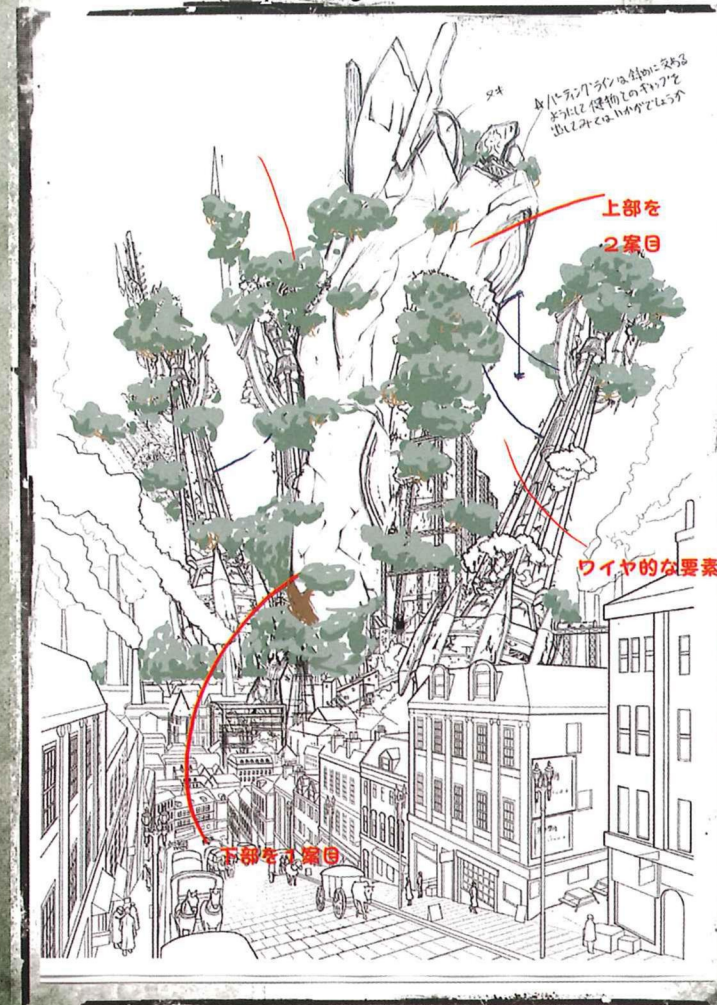

The infamous shop where Hagel, Arland's blacksmith, forges various weapons and items. His skills as a blacksmith are unrivaled in Arland. If only he could find a way to cure his baldness...
